South Cheshire Civil War Centre

Over the summer the Museum held a popular exhibition, Nantwich Besieged (exploring Nantwich as a garrison town during the English Civil War) and we must thank Applewood Independent for their support which enabled the Museum's Research Group to build a scaled model of the town and battle.

The work continues as volunteers are working to develop a civil war centre which will provide an educational resource and project-based examination of the Civil Wars in South Cheshire.
