What is it?

Music for Life Ensembles provide high quality group music-making experiences for young people aged 7 to 18. There are various options designed to suit a full range of age and ability – we want to embrace all levels whilst providing an enjoyable challenge and an exciting experience for everyone. Multiple groups take place, so read on to find out which one (or more) is for you!

Who is it for?

There is something for everyone aged 7 to 18 who plays an instrument or sings!

Repertoire will be selected and arranged to ensure every young person's experience is engaging, accessible, challenging and fun! Our Musical Directors, Jo McCallum and Eve Harrison, will write or arrange pieces specifically for the players in the group and you will even get a chance to create your own music and improvise too.

Why should I join?

- Social - make lasting friendships
- New styles of music
- Expert tuition
- Mental Health benefits
- Performance opportunities
- Progression routes
- It's fun!
